

As a concerned Indiana resident I am opposed to any change in our "no call list" law. I do not wish to speak on the phone with people I may or many not have done business with in the past 15 months.